The wrist strap for the Nintendo Wii Remote conveniently places the Wii Remote on your wrist while playing exercise games for the Wii Fit. The remote wrist strap is made of a comfortable neoprene material that allows your skin to breathe while working out.
The adjustable Velcro fasteners on the strap can fit around your wrist or bicep, (depending on your arm size). You'll no longer be forced to put down and pick up the remote multiple times when performing Wii fit activities.

Features include:

- Made of a black neoprene fabric
- Designed for the bicep, forearm, or wrist
- Holds the Wii Remote securely when fastened
- Cutout openings for the IR sensor and Nunchuk connection

Wii Remote and Nunchuk not included*
